

A FEAST FROM BACK EAST

George Abou-Daoud, owner of the Bowery gastropub, opened Delancey, a New York-inspired restaurant, in April, anticipating the needs of impending Hollywood condo dwellers. Abou-Daoud pays tribute to Manhattan's Lower

ROBIN NANCE

East Side with exposed brick walls, cast-iron windows and a pressed tin ceiling. The facade features custom-glazed red brick and a neon red sign. Chef David Bonfiglio, who cooked at Savoy and the Lobster Club in Manhattan, is preparing East Coast-style Italian dishes like saltimbocca, chicken Parmesan, thin-crust pizza, and zeppole for dessert. Delancey offers 20 beers on draft, including Affligem Blonde and a hoppy Double Dog Double Pale Ale, plus four-brew flights. 5936 W. Sunset Blvd., (323) 924-2093