

NEW IN TOWN

LGO Hospitality founder Bob Lynn and his partners already succeeded with Postino Winecafé in a former Phoenix post office, so they embraced the opportunity to revitalize Pasadena's Santa Fe Railway Depot with LGO's new La Grande Orange Cafe. Order at the old ticket counter at lunch, and expect table service at dinner. The cafe is named for the "big orange" groves that once bordered both Phoenix and Pasadena. Executive chef Scott Malin is producing seasonal American cooking from fresh ingredients. Fish and vegetables change daily, and core dishes include ground-to-order burgers, pan-roasted lobster tail tacos and pan-fried chicken. 260 S. Raymond Ave., (626) 356-4444
