CULVER CITY RUSH

Chicago native Brian McKeaney, Ken Kaufman and Tom Patchett (co-creator of "ALF") are channeling the Second City's party street in downtown Culver City. Rush Street encompasses 6,000 square feet, including brick walls, wood beams, espresso leather booths, a 35-foot concrete bar and sidewalk patio seating. Upstairs are a rooftop patio, a lounge and DJ booth. Executive chef Dave Northrup is cooking American dishes such as roasted marrow bones with braised short rib and onion marmalade, brick oven-cooked pizzas and pan-seared sand dabs with sautéed spinach. 9546 Washington Blvd., (310) 837-9546
